

Global Health Communications & Public Engagement

Project Title	Global Health Communications & Public Engagement
Project Summary	Create and curate social media content on global health priorities; help organize and promote webchats; help draft and format health diplomacy-focused newsletter; update and maintain list of foreign dignitaries; maintain contact lists of health exchange alumni current. Research best practices.
Country	United States
Country/Region of Focus	Global

Project Description

Virtual interns working with the Global Health Diplomacy team, in the Office of the Global AIDS Coordinator & Health Diplomacy, will support the public diplomacy efforts aimed at elevating the value of health diplomacy among State Department officers overseas, internal State Department stakeholders, and alumni of State Department Exchange Program who work in the global health. The intern will help create and curate content for use on social media, including social media graphics.

Experience with html or software programs to create and edit newsletters is a plus as are writing skills in French, Portuguese and Spanish.

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)

Analytical writing

Data visualization

Design thinking

Editing and proofreading

Graphic design

Infographic design

Marketing

Research

Social media management

Storytelling/blogging/vlogging

Videography

Writing

Additional Information

Seeking creative graphic artist, ideally with access to design software is a plus.

Experience with newsletter software is a plus.

VSFS interns should be open to collaboration with other interns on cross-functional teams in the office.

An ideal candidate will be organized; passionate about global health; and have an ability to meet deadlines.

Language Requirements

None